

Role Profiling

Publisher	Product	Ψ	Description	Details
Saville	Job Profile	Ψ	The Saville Job Profiler is a sophisticated tool designed to assess the characteristics of success within a given role and facilitate the measurement of organisational competencies. By combining the expertise of the individuals that know the role best with validated scientific research, the Saville Job Profiler provides a comprehensive profile of success specifically suited to the unique requirements of success in your organisation. Price includes up to 30 candidates per role, including project management and workshop to discuss results Useful for identifying critical competencies for role success. It can be used across many roles.	15 mins
Facet 5	Audition	Ψ	Audition is a function of Facet5 that enables clients to identify the behavioural requirements of a particular role, and then compare individuals to that role definition. Candidates are compared with the role requirements and assigned an overall score based on closeness of fit. Audition recruitment reports on candidate's behavioural style in relation to the ideal profile, it provides situational and behavioural interview question. Price includes up to 30 candidates per role, including project management and workshop to discuss results Useful for identifying critical competencies for role success. It can be used across many roles.	15mins